

THE PIRATE BAY

Will Intellectual Property Law exist in ten years?

The Law Students' Association at the University of Stockholm is proud to contribute to the debate on intellectual property rights by giving a three-day conference on the latest developments in the area.

25th - 27th November 2009

THE PIRATE BAY

Will Intellectual Property Law exist in ten years?

A matter for debate

LEGAL CONFERENCE

The Law Students' Association cordially invites you to a legal conference and welcome you to participate in our engaging seminars and discussions on Copyright Law.

25th - 27th November 2009

At the Residence of Legal Scholars, situated next to Aula Magna on Frescati campus, Stockholm

The Law Students' Association is a non-profit organization and open to all law students at the University of Stockholm.

The association is managed by students that devote their time and effort to aid other students in their education, connecting them with fellow students in Sweden and around the world and facilitating contacts in the legal labour market.

THE PIRATE BAY

Will Intellectual Property Law exist in ten years?

A matter for debate

Lecturing on the effects of The Pirate Bay and different angles on Intellectual Property Law and Copyright Law are among others:

Marianne Levin

Marianne is a Professor of Civil Law with a focus on Intellectual Property Law, Head of the Institute for Intellectual Property and Market Law, Chairwoman of the Swedish Association for the Protection of Industrial Property, etc.

Jan Rosén

Jan is a Professor of Civil Law, Chairman of the Swedish association of the rights of authors, Vice President of ALAI, President elect of ATRIP, Commissioner in The Copyright Law Commission of the Swedish Parliament Ju 2008:07, etc.
Jan will be lecturing on A legal Internet - status and need for reform.

Helena Woodcock

Helena is Chief Lawyer at the Swedish Performing Rights Society and will be lecturing on the work of the Swedish Performing Rights Society.

Daniel Westman

Daniel is a Doctoral Student of Information Technology Law and will be lecturing on An outline - the overall picture of the debate on file sharing.

Sanna Wolk

Sanna is a Doctor of Civil Law with a focus on Intellectual Property Law.

Panel debate on the future of Intellectual Property Law

On the panel: Monique Wadsted (Attorney from The Pirate Bay Trial), Roger Wallis (Professor Emeritus of Multimedia), law academics, politicians, etc.
Moderator is Joakim Jardenberg (Founder & CEO of Mindpark AB).

THE PIRATE BAY

Will Intellectual Property Law exist in ten years?

A matter for debate

For this conference we offer three options for attendance:

Option 1

Accommodation from the 25th to the 28th, including breakfast, lunch and two dinners. 1200 SEK

Option 2

Accommodation from the 25th to the 29th, including breakfast, lunch, two dinners and a ticket to the Annual Ball of the Stockholm Law Student's Association. 2000 SEK

Option 3

No accommodation, including lunch and two dinners. 300 SEK

THE ANNUAL BALL

At the Annual Ball you will be treated to a three-course meal including beverages, transportation to the after party venue and, of course, supper. The dress code is dress suit for gentlemen and ball gown for ladies.

RSVP

The closing date for the acceptance is 1st of November. Please notify your acceptance by email at internationellsekreterare@jurstud.com, providing your name, date of birth, university, city and country. Please also notify us if you have any allergies, or any special food you need, and which option for attendance you wish to purchase.

We recommend that you arrive at the Central Station in Stockholm on the 25th November no later than 10.30 AM if you wish to attend all the seminars and discussions.

If you have any questions about the conference, please do not hesitate to contact internationellsekreterare@jurstud.com.